

JOYOUS TIME IN LONDON TOWN

PEACE CELEBRATION AND THE CORONATION FESTIVITIES.

Disputes Expressed at the City That Followed the Announcement of the Boer Surrender—Theaters Not Doing Well, Though the City Is Doing Honors for the Duke of Marlborough.

Special Cable Telegram to the New York Journal of Commerce, June 7.—The combined joys of a second peace and of the season of the King's coronation have taken possession of London, or, if stated from another point of view, the people of the metropolis have again the double occasion as an excuse for a month of restrained or unrestrained self-indulgence.

Monday's so-called peace celebration certainly developed a disgusting orgy, such as has never been seen in London streets in recent years. Scores of men and women drank on the pavements of fashionable West End thoroughfares at midnight. The Londoners' best point of view, however, was committed through sheer passion for violence, and outrages committed in the name of peace only reached the knowledge of the general public in the past day or two through the medium of the papers and the coroners' inquests.

Recent London feels itself disgraced, and is under the shadow of a gloom which is not only a reflection on the peace, but on the coronation itself. It is generally expected that they, as on former similar occasions, will parade in warm-weather attire.

The troops now at the front will be represented at the coronation by ten selected non-commissioned officers and by ten men from the army corps, and possibly also by representatives of the Boer forces now serving in South Africa. This will amount to a body of 2,500 or 3,000 men, who must have sailed yesterday or today if they are to be here in time. It is generally expected that they, as on former similar occasions, will parade in warm-weather attire.

ONE RILE FOR SOUTH AFRICA. Chamberlain Said to Have a Plan—British Contingent Will Be Large.

Special Cable Telegram to the New York Journal of Commerce, June 7.—The present aspect of the South African situation is giving great satisfaction to all parties in Great Britain. It is fully recognized that the terms respecting the future government of the new states are so vague that the British authorities will retain complete discretion, and there is no specific demand which the Boers will be able to advance within any definite time.

The impression prevails that the Government has no intention ever to restore the constitution in Cape Colony, which was suspended a few months ago. It is believed that Mr. Chamberlain has a comprehensive plan, which will not only restore the constitution, but will also bring all the British in South Africa under closer relationship than in the ante-bellum days. This plan will probably not be announced at present, and the provisional government will continue for a considerable time.

BOERS SURRENDER ARMS. Steps Toward Complete Peace Satisfactory. Reports Kitchener.

Special Cable Telegram to the New York Journal of Commerce, June 7.—The Boers have received a despatch from Lord Kitchener under today's date, in which he says that the surrenders by the Boers continue in an entirely satisfactory manner. At Middelburg 400 burghers laid down their arms and handed in a complete pompon. The holding place was indicated. At Standerton 280 Boers laid down their arms, and in the Cape Colony 255 have surrendered, of whom 210 were Cape rebels. It is expected that more of them will surrender at Cradock today. All the Dutch in the Cape Colony, Lord Kitchener says, have expressed joy at the news that peace has been concluded.

TUNNEL COST ABOVE ESTIMATE. McDonald Said Electrical Equipment Will Undergo Rapid Transit Railroad.

Next will come the bearers of the King's regalia and other high officials, such as Earl Marshall, etc. The King will follow with a numerous train of nobles holding high court offices. The rear will be brought up by the Yeoman of the Guard.

On the other side of the Queen and her immediate supporters there will be five gentlemen-at-arms, on either side of the King will be ten of these gentlemen-at-arms, with the Lieutenant of the Tower, standard bearer, and the Yeoman of the Guard.

Immediately before the King will be the Duke of Marlborough, carrying the crown of St. Edward, with which the Archbishop of Canterbury will crown the King. The Duke of Marlborough will crown the King.

CUBANS TO FREE AMERICANS.

SENATE VOTES AMNESTY—POLITICAL TRUTH CASES INCLUDED.

Ballroom, Secely and the Others Will Escape—Rathbone Says He Will Still Demand a Fair Trial or an Investigation by Congress. Cubans Now Hope for Aid From Senator Hanna on the Tariff.

Special Cable Telegram to the New York Journal of Commerce, June 7.—The Senate today passed a bill granting amnesty to all American citizens under sentence or against whom proceedings are pending.

A proposal to make the bill applicable to Cubans who had fought in the war was rejected on the ground that this was not within the sphere of the Legislature.

It was decided, however, to recommend that the President pardon all offenders of this class. The Senators explain that there is a difference in the two cases, amnesty to foreigners being a political matter and therefore within the sphere of legislative action.

Ex-Director of Posts Rathbone, who was among those convicted of postal frauds, says he appreciates the sentiment of the Cubans, but that he wants a trial and a fair trial. If he cannot obtain a trial in the United States he will insist that Congress investigate his actions in Cuba.

James M. McLaughlin, who was among those convicted of postal frauds, says he appreciates the sentiment of the Cubans, but that he wants a trial and a fair trial. If he cannot obtain a trial in the United States he will insist that Congress investigate his actions in Cuba.

SOFT COAL STRIKE FIZZLES.

RESPONSE TO ORDERS TO QUIT IS NOT GENERAL.

Miners in West Virginia Did Not Go Out to the Extent That Was Anticipated—Times Are Good and They Have No Real Grievances—May Be 25,000 Out.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 7.—The order of National Mine Workers' Union for a general strike in this district today was obeyed by very small percentage of 10,000 miners. In the Fairmont region or northern fields of the State, with a few exceptions all of the sixty mines of the Fairmont Coal Company, extending for sixty miles along the Monongahela River, ran as usual today. The fact that work has been plenty, wages good and that there is no general grievances accounted for the small attention paid to the order to quit.

Some of the mines have suspended operations. These are chiefly smaller collieries of independent operators. The Fleming miners are out. The Perry Coal company's mine at Adamston is also suspended. One of the Cook mine at Meadowbrook fifty strike. At this mine an Italian agitator was arrested and brought to jail here this morning for threatening property. Most of the Cook miners are Italian. Many are armed. Trouble with the superintendent over a discharge of two union men several days ago caused the trouble, rather than the strike order.

Most of the miners seem contented and no trouble is feared. "Mother" Jones, the famous union agitator, held an open-air meeting today near here. Less than 200 men, women and children heard her. The address was of an inflammatory character and was loudly cheered.

Thomas Hagerty, an organizer, and Bernard Rice of the National Executive Committee also addressed the meeting. They are holding a meeting to a larger crowd tonight at Shinnston, nine miles from here.

WHITING, W. Va., June 7.—The strike order issued by the United Mine Workers to the men of the bituminous fields of this State, Virginia and Maryland went into effect this morning.

In the Norfolk and Western field it is asserted, 10,000 men are out, tying up 95 per cent of the mines. On the Big River one-third of the men are out. The Thacker field is tied up. At Dingess the mines are idle, and on Elkhorn 3,000 men have quit. One Elkhorn company wired to Philadelphia this morning for five dozen Winchester rifles. The Hungarians are drinking heavily and regard it as a holiday. Trouble is feared in Elkhorn from the intoxicated foreigners.

RENTON, W. Va., June 7.—Advisers show that one-third of the miners in the Kanawha coal fields came out today in response to the strike order and about one-half of the total number in the New River district. Gov. Montague is keeping in close touch with the Pocahontas mines and no serious disturbances have been reported.

C. J. Whittenberg, President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Coal and Coke Company, said yesterday:

"In the New River and the Pocahontas districts and the West Virginia districts of the Baltimore and Ohio road, about 20,000 men employed in the mines of which about 90 per cent were not working today. I haven't quite made out yet whether those who are taking part are actually on strike. A large part of them are negroes, who, I think, will not remain out of work long and only about 40 per cent are organized in any way."

Mr. Whittenberg's opinion, whatever strike is started won't last long.

MINERS' BITTER PERSECUTION. Rioting Yields to Assault and Pillage—Hounding in Coal Region.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., June 7.—Sheriff Jacobs has had a long talk with President Mitchell of the striking coal miners in which he told him that if such rioting as that of Thursday night continues he will call upon the Governor for troops. Father Curran, a warm sympathizer with the strikers, has also entered upon a vigorous campaign in the interest of peace.

There are threats on the part of the traction employees to strike unless men who work in the mines are forbidden to ride in the trolley cars. The superintendent of the company told the committee which waited on him that as a common carrier the company could not refuse to carry orderly persons who paid their fares. This made no difference. The employees still demand that no "scale" be permitted on the cars, and there is fear that the trolley lines will be tied as a result of the controversy. One of the large stores in town has refused to sell supplies to men who are on strike, and many cases now where men at work and their families are having difficulty in buying things because tradesmen refuse to serve them.

There was a particularly cowardly and brutal assault today at Hanover, near Nanticoke, on a coal and iron policeman named Daniel McGraw, and upon an iron policeman named Fredrick. McGraw was just passing a gang of strikers in the street when one of them pulled a half brick at him from behind. The brick struck McGraw's head and he was wounded. McGraw was slightly damaged and after being taken to a hospital he was released. McGraw was taken to a hospital and after being taken to a hospital he was released.

At last reports McGraw was still unconscious and it is feared that his injuries are serious.
